

Based in Southern Oregon, Sunday Afternoons is a family-owned company that designs and manufactures hats and accessories. Their upcoming winter line is inspired by the starry skies above, with their knit Stellar Beanie featuring glow-in-the-dark constellations. Through this partnership with IDA, Sunday Afternoons hopes to inspire curiosity in its customers by encouraging them to gaze at the stars and help preserve our dark skies for generations to come.

www.sundayafternoons.com

IDA thanks Sunday Afternoons for their generous sponsorship of our Annual General Meeting

EVENT UNDERWRITERS

Chris Monrad
Kelly Beatty

Thanks to the financial support of our dedicated event underwriters!

Aloft, 1900 E Speedway Blvd, Tucson, AZ 85719

Harnessing the Power of the Grassroots to Reduce Light
Pollution and its Environmental Impacts Worldwide

IDA Board of Directors and Annual General Meeting
December 3, 2016 | 8:00am-5:00pm | Aloft Hotel | Tucson, Arizona

SATURDAY – DECEMBER 3, 2016

8.00am–10.30am

IDA Members Meeting (interactive webcast)

IDA Member Survey Results and Discussion

- Survey coordinator Megan Albaugh will highlight many of the important insights and findings of IDA's first-ever member survey. Learn what our members are telling us and what they want!

Chapter Presentations and Member Discussion

- Turning the Tide on LEDs - mobilizing our grassroots to win the war on LED conversions and how IDA's Phoenix leaders prevailed on the City's planned conversion to 4000K. Presented by IDA Phoenix Chapter Leader Robert Hobbins and joined by IDA Chicago Chapter Leader Audrey Fischer.
- Putting the "I" Back in IDA - IDA's Beijing and Greece Chapters break new ground in reducing light pollution. Presented by IDA Beijing Chapter Leader Ruoyu Li and IDA Greece Chapter Leader Andreas Papalambrou.
- Inspiring Citizen Activists into Action - Tips on mobilizing communities in support of dark sky policies. Presented by IDA Northwest Chapter Leader David Ingram, IDA San Bernadino County Chapter Leader Tom O'Key, and Bruce McMath, IDA Arkansas.

10.30am-10.45am

Break

10.45am-11.30am

Presentation of IDA 2016 awards

- David L. Crawford Lifetime Achievement Award
- Hoag/Robinson Award
- Dark Sky Defender Award
- Lighting Design Award
- Rising Star Award

11.30am-11.45am

Break

11.45pm-1.15pm

Special Lunch Presentation: The Making of the New Katahdin Woods and Waters National Monument in Maine

- Join Mark and Susan Adams, Katahdin Woods and Waters Recreation Managers, to hear first hand the incredible behind-the-scenes story of what it took to create the 413th preserved area in the National Park Service system. Spanning almost 88,000 acres of pristine wilderness, the Monument contains some of the darkest skies in the entire Northeastern U.S.!

1.15pm-1.30pm

Break

1.30pm-5.00pm

IDA Board of Directors Meeting

5.00pm-5.15pm

Break

5.15pm-6.00pm

Social time and networking

6.00pm – 7.15pm

Dinner (on your own)

7.30pm

Field Trip - Tucson's Lighting ~ The Good and the Bad!

- Join IDA Director and professional lighting engineer Chris Monrad for a night time tour of Tucson's environs to explore some of the best ... and worst ... examples of the City's dark sky friendly lighting. Free, but reservations required for bus tour - seating limited to 27 guests.

